

Your Advocate in Solving State Government and Regulatory Issues

Emory A. Belton, Jr. uses his 25 years of experience, key contacts, and relationships in the energy, regulatory, and governmental sectors to meet client objectives. As an attorney and registered lobbyist, he applies this extensive experience to issues concerning the energy industry. He has represented clients in complex electric and gas utility regulatory matters, power generation, transmission, renewable energy, oil and gas exploration and production, pipelines, landowners, royalty matters, hurricane recovery, oil field waste haulers, telecommunications, and governmental and political affairs.

His active engagements include representing clients before the Louisiana Legislature, the Governor's Office, Local Government, and all Executive Branch Agencies, including:

- Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality
- Louisiana Department of Public Safety/Emergency Services/Hazardous Materials
- Louisiana Public Service Commission
- Louisiana Department of Revenue
- Louisiana Department of Natural Resources
- Louisiana Department of Justice
- State Mineral and Energy Board
- Louisiana Department of Economic Development
- Office of Conservation
- Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries
- State Bond Commission

If your company or organization is looking for a personal, hands-on approach to bring together people and ideas to accomplish its goals, Belton Law Firm/Consulting can help you. For a free consultation, or to find out more, please contact us.
